The premium is fully earned upon the release of the Principal. The fact that the Principal may have been improperly arrested, or that the bail is reduced or the case dismissed, shall not obligate the return of any portion of the premium. This bond is renewable each year, and the First Party agrees to pay the renewal premium in the same amount twelve (12) months after the bond execution date. If the renewal premium is not paid upon written demand, the Second Party or Surety has the right to surrender the Principal as allowed by law. The obligation to pay a renewal premium is subject to paragraph eight (8), as permitted by state law. The First Party further authorizes Aces Bail Bonds to obtain and review consumer credit reports and verify financial information for underwriting or enforcing obligations related to this bail bond. This authorization remains valid while any liability exists under the bond and serves as written consent pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA)..

However, no expenses or liabilities incurred for recapturing or returning principal to custody shall be chargeable after the entry judgment.

FOURTH: To pay the second party or surety, reasonable attorneys fees and costs incurred in any action or proceeding arising out of this agreement.

FIFTH: To pay second party or surety as collateral upon demand, the penal amount of the Bail Bond whenever second party or surety, as a result of information concealed or misrepresented by the first party or principal or other reasonable, any one of which was ,arterial to hazard assumed, deems payment necessary to protect the second party or surety hereunder. ELEVENTH: In making application for bail bond, each of us warrants all statements made by him or her on this application to be true, and we agree to advise second party or surety of any change, including but not limited to change of address or employment of either the principal or any other material change in circumstances, within forty- eight (48) hours after knowledge such change shall have occurred, and first party agrees that any failure to so notify shall be reasonable cause for the immediate surrender of the principal.
